• Time for rest and socializing

For lunch and socializing, we will use a covered and mostly shady terrace and a tent, but please note that there will be a lot of us and that we will be spending a long time in nature. On Sunday, sunny and warm weather is expected (temperatures may reach 28 °C), so think about what you might need from these suggestions...

- mosquito protection, something for after a possible bite (especially if you have children)
- spare clothes and shoes to make you as comfortable as possible
- personal water bottle
- those who wish can bring the necessary clothes and water shoes and towels because there will be an opportunity to swim in the river for the braver ones 😊
